

FAMILY

EXPERIENCES PORTFOLIO

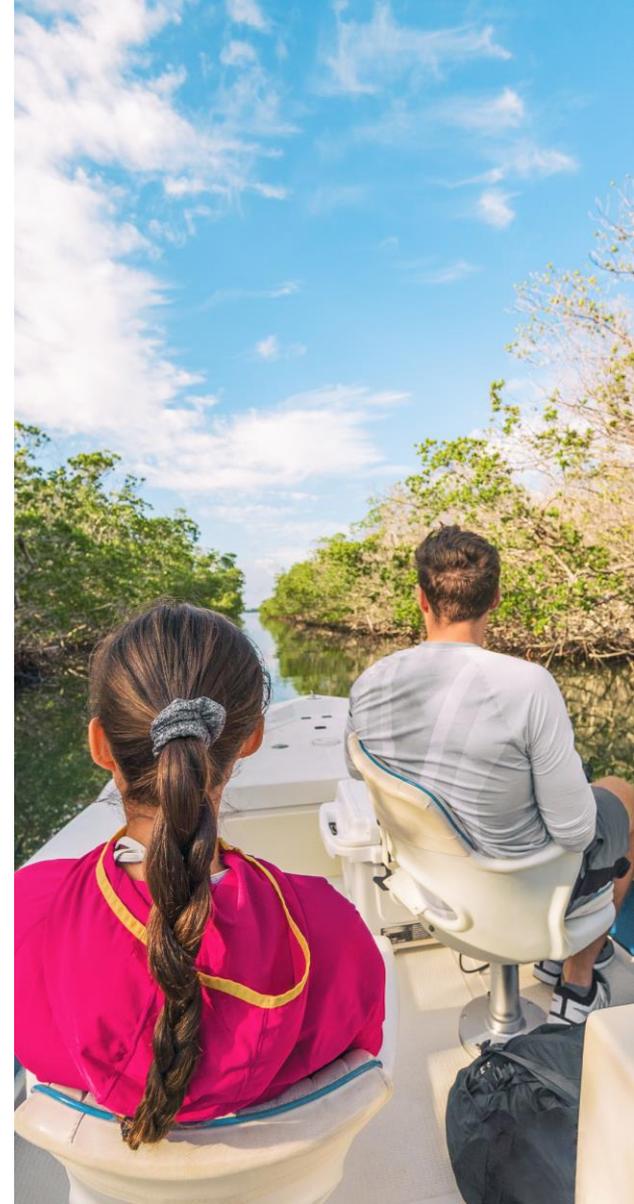

WE DELIVER

THE ART OF EXPERIENCES

The best moments are those that hold personal meaning.

And we know exactly how to create personal moments immersed in the real essence of our destinations.

The result? Elevated, original experiences and educational content that cannot be found — or felt — elsewhere.

FAMILY DESTINATION

Panama offers something for every member of the family, at every age!

Panama is a safe destination! The perfect place to introduce international travel to the youngest members of the family. In this country, you can find volcanoes, rainforests, waterfalls, unique wildlife, and many stunning beaches. It also offers endless opportunities to experience learning in a fun and meaningful way. Whether you have a family of nature lovers, or adventurers or looking for beach relaxation, Panama has it all!

GOLDEN HOUR AT CASCO VIEJO

Experience the enchanting allure of Panama's Casco Viejo with our captivating sunset tour. As the sun descends, watch as its golden rays caress the historic cobblestone streets, casting a warm, honeyed glow on the colonial facades. Stroll through winding alleys and absorb the whispers of history that echo through the timeworn architecture. Sip on crisp, chilled drinks as the sun dips below the horizon, painting the sky with a vibrant tapestry of oranges, pinks, and purples. Revel in the harmonious blend of old-world charm and natural beauty, making this golden hour stroll a mesmerizing and romantic journey through time and place.

FAMILY EXPERIENCES

As the late afternoon sun casts its golden hues, your guide will whisk you away from your hotel to embark on the enchanting Casco Viejo at Sunset tour. In the heart of Casco Viejo, Panama City's colonial quarter, you'll step into a bygone era, where charming colonial houses line the narrow -cobbled streets, and grandiose churches stand as testaments to history. This 337-year-old neighborhood unveils Panama's rich heritage as you wander through its iconic attractions, from the captivating Plaza de Francia to the awe-inspiring Metropolitan Cathedral. Casco Viejo, a UNESCO World Heritage site, exudes an unceasing atmosphere of history, culture, nightlife, and dining. Your evening culminates with a delectable dinner at a carefully chosen restaurant in Casco Viejo, leaving you with unforgettable memories of Panama's historic and vibrant soul as the sun dips below the horizon.

Included: Transportation, English-speaking driver-guide, and dinner at a carefully selected restaurant in Casco Viejo.

Duration: 4 hours

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes and camera

GAMBOA WILDLIFE EXPEDITION

Delve deep into the heart of Panama's biodiversity heaven as you journey through the Discovery Rainforest Center, situated along the renowned Pipeline Road— a global bird-watching hotspot. Wander across exotic trails and get up close and personal with a stunning array of wildlife, from vibrant birds and elusive mammals to enchanting amphibians. Ascend a 40-meter tower for canopy views of iconic birds and explore a lake platform for sightings of wattled jacanas, least grebes, herons, and snail kites. After this rainforest immersion, enjoy a canal boat ride, observing colossal ships and wildlife along Gatun Lake.

GAMBOA WILDLIFE EXPEDITION

You'll start this captivating expedition visiting the Rainforest Discovery Center situated along the famed Pipeline Road, globally renowned for bird watching. This location holds a notable record set by the Audubon Society in 1985, identifying 385 bird species in a 24-hour count. Guided by a naturalist, your adventure commences in Gamboa town, trekking the pipeline road to access the Rainforest Discovery Center. You'll traverse through emerald green trails to spot vibrant displays of manakins, elusive anteaters, and striking trogons and ascend a 40-meter tower for canopy views of birds, such as the iconic blue cotinga and toucans. You'll also stop at a lake platform to view aquatic birds, such as wattled jacanas, least grebes, herons, and snail kites. Following this rainforest immersion, embark on a boat ride northbound along the canal, offering proximity to the large ships transiting the canal daily. Navigate the forested banks of Gatun Lake, a protected area, and observe capuchin monkeys, three-toed sloths, and howler monkeys. Conclude this extraordinary experience with a delectable lunch in a rural setting with scenic views of Gatun Lake.

Included: Transportation from/to Panama City, English speaking naturalist guide, boat ride, entrance fees, and lunch.

Duration: Half-day tour

What to Bring: Hiking shoes, long pants, camera, binoculars, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, insect repellent, water.

EMBERA CULTURAL IMMERSION

Immerse yourself into the vibrant cultural tapestry of the Embera Quera indigenous community as you sense the natural miracles of the Chagres region. On this one-day excursion, you'll glide through a scenic river in a traditional dugout canoe, surrounded by the pristine beauty of the lush landscape. Feel the mesmerizing rhythm of their traditional dances, delve into the artistry of intricately crafted handicrafts, and gain profound insights into their time-honored customs. Engage in meaningful conversations with Embera Quera locals, unraveling the nuances of their lifestyle and deep connection with ancestral lands. This immersive experience promises a harmonious blend of cultural exploration and appreciation for the pristine beauty of Panama's indigenous heritage.

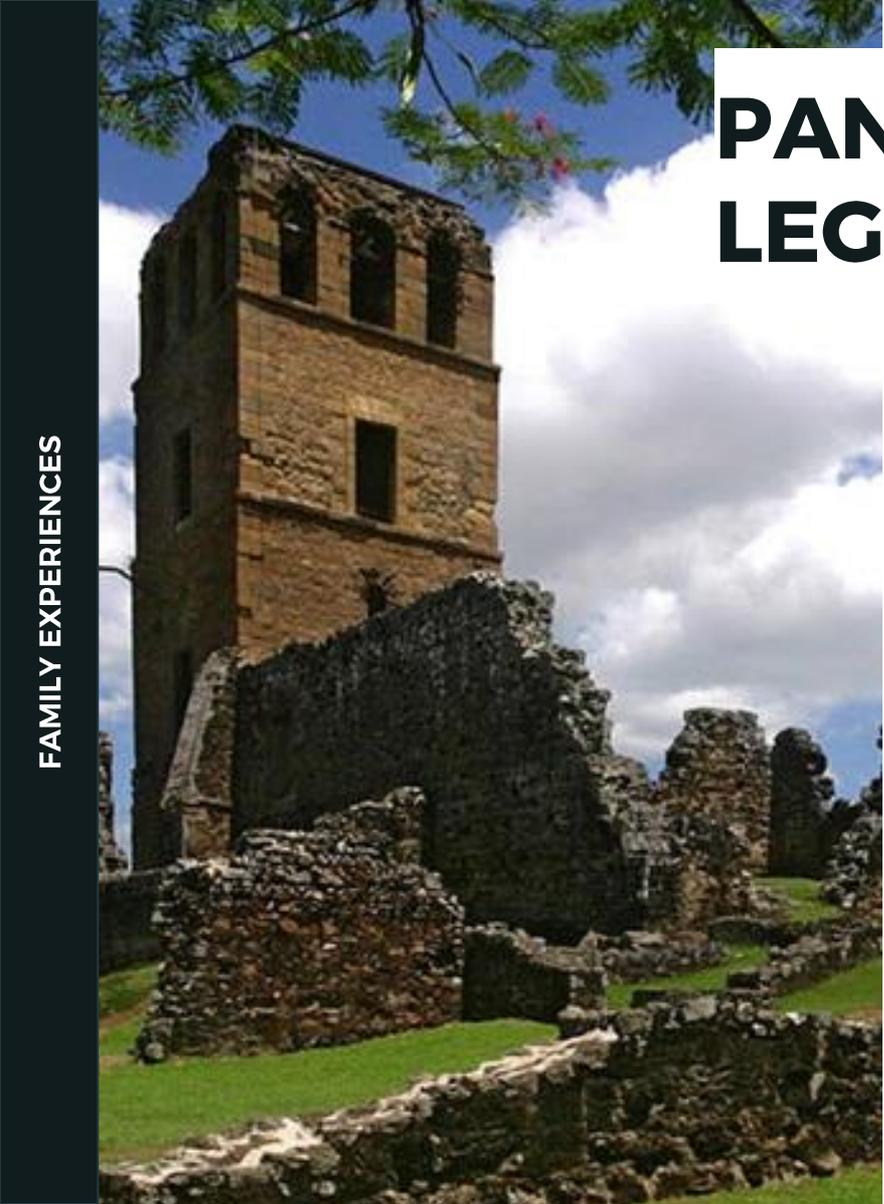

Embark on an immersive cultural journey that transports you into the heart of indigenous Panama. Setting out towards Colon and Buena Vista, your adventure begins as you board a traditional handcrafted dugout canoe navigating the meandering Gatun River. Upon arrival, the Embera Quera tribe, which lives in perfect harmony with Mother Nature, extends a warm welcome at the wooden pier. The village's chief captivating narrative will unveil the tribe's traditions, cultural heritage, beliefs, and masterful handicrafts. Savor a traditional lunch crafted by Embera women, featuring delectable fresh fish and plantains. In the afternoon, time-travel through mesmerizing Embera dances and explore a vibrant handicraft market, offering an opportunity to contribute to children's education and the community's sustainability.

Included: Transportation from/to Panama City, English speaking naturalist guide, and local lunch.

Duration: 6 hours.

What to Bring: Hiking shoes, comfortable clothes, bathing suit, towel, insect repellent, sunscreen, sunglasses, hat, and camera.

PANAMA PIRATE LEGACY

Embark on this captivating journey through Panama's history and indulge in the flavors of the region with our Panama La Vieja tour.

Your English-speaking guide will pick you up from your hotel and take you to Panama La Vieja, the remaining area of the first city of Panama and a designated UNESCO World Heritage site. This fascinating tour provides a glimpse into the region's history and significance as the first European settlement on the Pacific coast of the Americas.

During the tour, you will have the opportunity to explore the ruins of Panama La Vieja, gaining insight into its rich history and cultural significance. Learn about the connections between the region and famous pirates like Henry Morgan, delving into the intriguing history of piracy in Panama and its impact on the country's development.

PANAMA PIRATE LEGACY

As part of the tour, we will also visit the Casa Barú rum cellar, where you can take a guided tour of the distillery and learn about the art of rum production. The experience culminates in a rum tasting, allowing you to sample a variety of exquisite rums and appreciate the craftsmanship behind each unique blend.

Continuing our exploration, we will take a leisurely walk through the charming streets of Casco Antiguo, the historical district of Panama City. Immerse yourself in the ambiance and architectural treasures of this area before enjoying a delightful dinner at a renowned restaurant, providing the perfect ending to a day filled with exploration, history, and culinary delights.

Included: Transportation to and from your Panama City hotel, an English-speaking driver/guide, entrance fees, and food.

Duration: 7 hours

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes and bringing a camera, sunscreen, and water for your comfort. Dinner is included as part of the tour.

SUNSET BIKING IN PANAMA CITY BAY

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a light blue short-sleeved dress and a wide-brimmed straw hat, is riding a bright blue bicycle on a paved city street. She is smiling and looking back over her shoulder. The background shows a blurred city street with buildings and other people, suggesting a lively urban environment.

Pedal along the picturesque Panama City Bay, experiencing its enchanting charm beneath sunset's warm, golden glow. Commence your journey at the renowned "Mercado de Mariscos", the city's fish market, and get ready to explore the Amador Causeway, which connects the mainland to four islands in the Pacific Ocean. This cycling adventure is not only physically invigorating but also offers an immersive exploration of Panama's coastal allure and the vibrant energy defining the city. As you ride through this captivating urban paradise, revel in the beauty of the bay, taking in scenic landscapes and capturing the essence of Panama City's coastal magic.

SUNSET BIKING IN PANAMA CITY BAY

Your experience kicks off with a private transfer from your hotel to the lively “Mercado de Mariscos”, the iconic city fish market. From there, hop on your bike and set off along the scenic Amador Causeway, surrounded by the captivating golden hues of the sunset. The causeway was built with rocks extracted during the construction of the Panama Canal and extends 6 kilometers into the Pacific Ocean, connecting the mainland with the islands of Naos, Perico, and Flamenco. Formerly a military base, this area now hosts restaurants, shops, and clubs, creating a vibrant atmosphere for both residents and tourists. As you navigate the route along Panama's coastal beltway, you'll gain a unique perspective of the city and marvel at breathtaking vistas of the Pacific Ocean and the cityscape.

Included: Transfer from your hotel, bilingual tour guide, bike, safety gear, and refreshments.

Duration: 4 hours

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes, sunscreen, and water

PANAMA CANAL RAILWAY

What's it like to see massive ships up close while riding through a tropical paradise?

The Panama Canal Railway is a scenic train journey perfect for families of all ages. The railway runs parallel to the Panama Canal, connecting Panama City on the Pacific coast to Colón on the Atlantic coast. This hour-long trip passes through lush rainforests, crosses Gatun Lake, and provides stunning views of the canal and the massive ships navigating it. The train features vintage-style passenger cars with large windows, ensuring every seat offers a panoramic view of the spectacular scenery.

PANAMA CANAL RAILWAY

Embark on a unique and unforgettable journey with the Panama Canal Railway. The Panama Canal Railway experience is more than just a train ride; it's a journey through time and nature, offering a unique perspective on one of the world's most significant waterways. Whether you're a history buff, a nature lover, or simply looking for a memorable adventure, this experience promises to leave you with lasting memories.

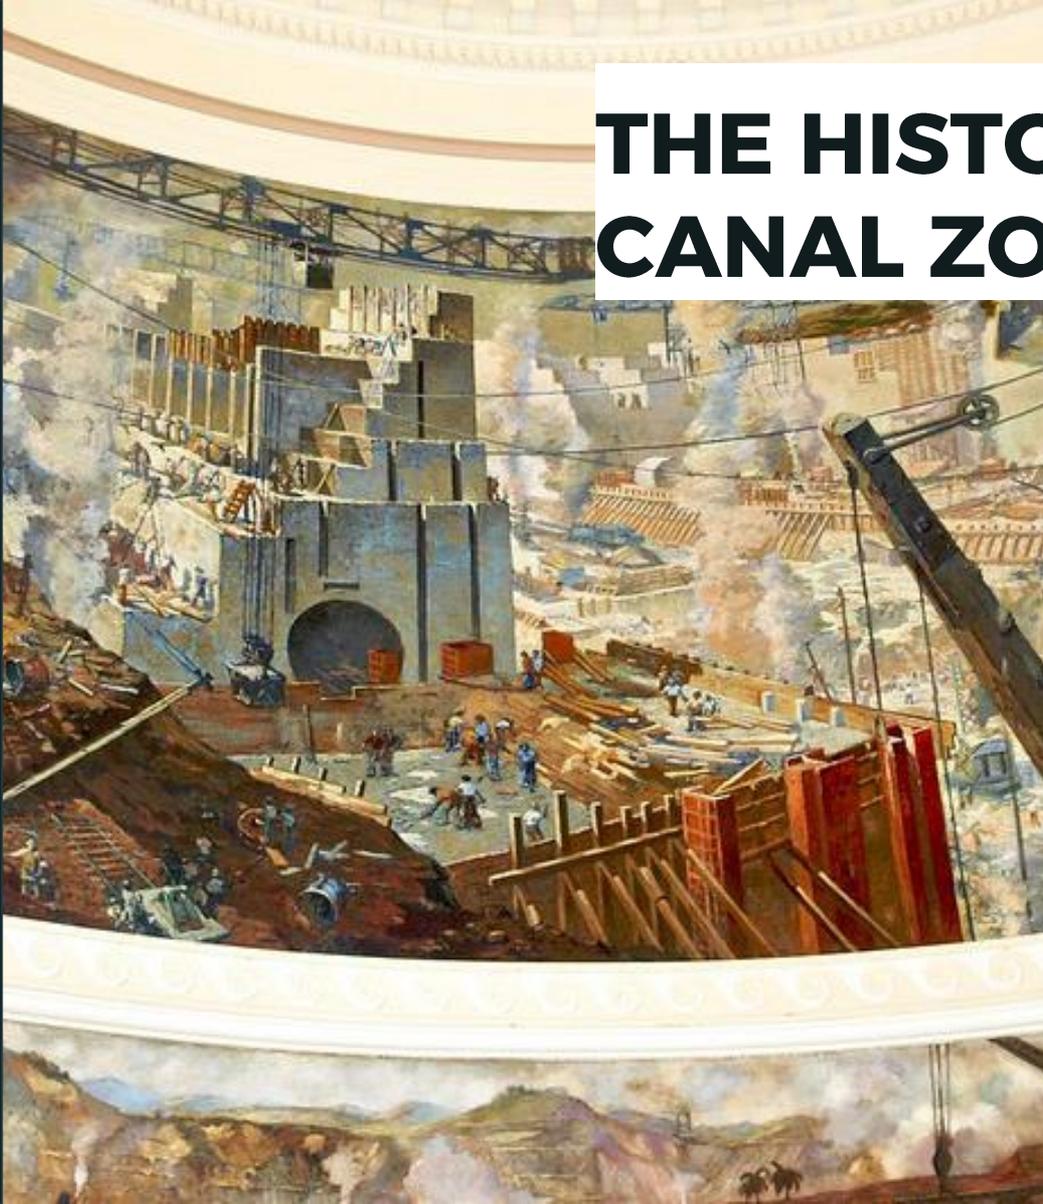

This tour can be combined with: San Lorenzo Fort, Agua Clara Locks or the Gatun Lake Expedition

Included: Transfer from your hotel, bilingual tour guide, entrance fees.

Duration: 1 hour for the train, half day in combination with other experiences.

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes, comfortable clothes and water

THE HISTORIC PANAMA CANAL ZONE

The Canal Zone tour in Panama is a fascinating journey that combines historical landmarks and cultural sites. It provides a comprehensive experience of Panama's past and present, a perfect blend of sightseeing, learning, and indulging in the country's vibrant history.

The Old Panama Canal Zone, a five-mile strip on each side of the Panama Canal, was an unofficial U.S. territory from 1903 to 1979. The opening of the Panama Canal.

Visit the iconic Administration Building, once the nerve center of the Panama Canal operations. You will explore the grand architecture of the building and admire the stunning frescoes that depict the history of the Canal Zone.

THE HISTORIC CANAL ZONE

Following the tour guide takes you to the solemn American Cemetery in Corozal, where you can pay tribute to the thousands of workers and soldiers who lost their lives during the construction of the Panama Canal. Walk through the meticulously maintained grounds and learn about the stories of sacrifice and dedication that lie beneath each headstone.

Then you will visit the City of Knowledge, a vibrant hub of innovation and education located within the former Clayton military base. Explore one of the emblematic buildings that now houses research institutions, universities, and cultural centers, showcasing Panama's commitment to knowledge and progress.

Included: Transfer from your hotel, bilingual tour guide, refreshments, and water.

Duration: Half-day

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes, sunscreen, and hat.

SAN LORENZO FORT & AGUA CLARA

Enjoy a memorable expedition through Panama's historical and engineering wonders. Witness the new awe-inspiring Agua Clara Locks on the Atlantic side of Panama, marveling at the intricate engineering of the Panama Canal expansion. Explore the UNESCO World Heritage Site, Fort San Lorenzo, and immerse yourself in its rich history and strategic significance. From breathtaking panoramic views to well-preserved fortifications, this tour offers a unique blend of natural beauty and historical exploration, providing a deeper understanding of Panama's cultural heritage and global impact.

SAN LORENZO FORT AND AGUA CLARA

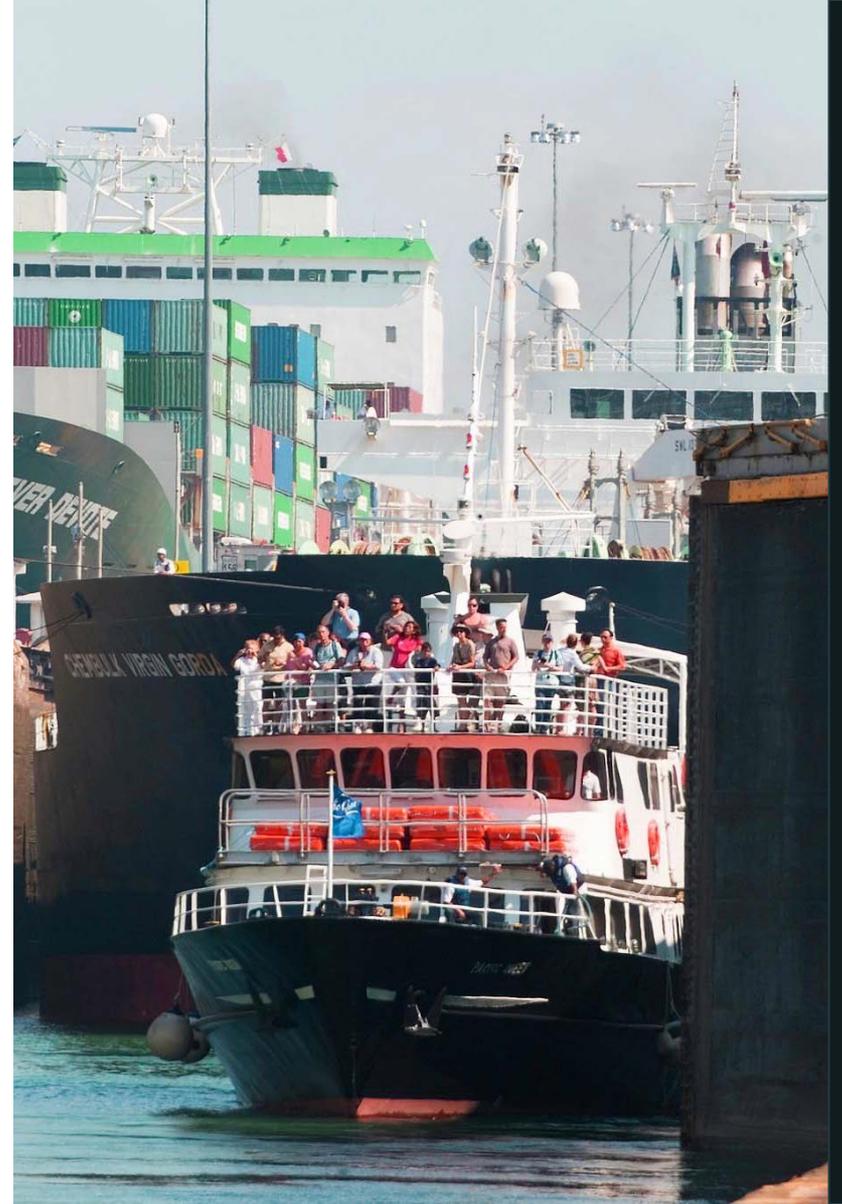

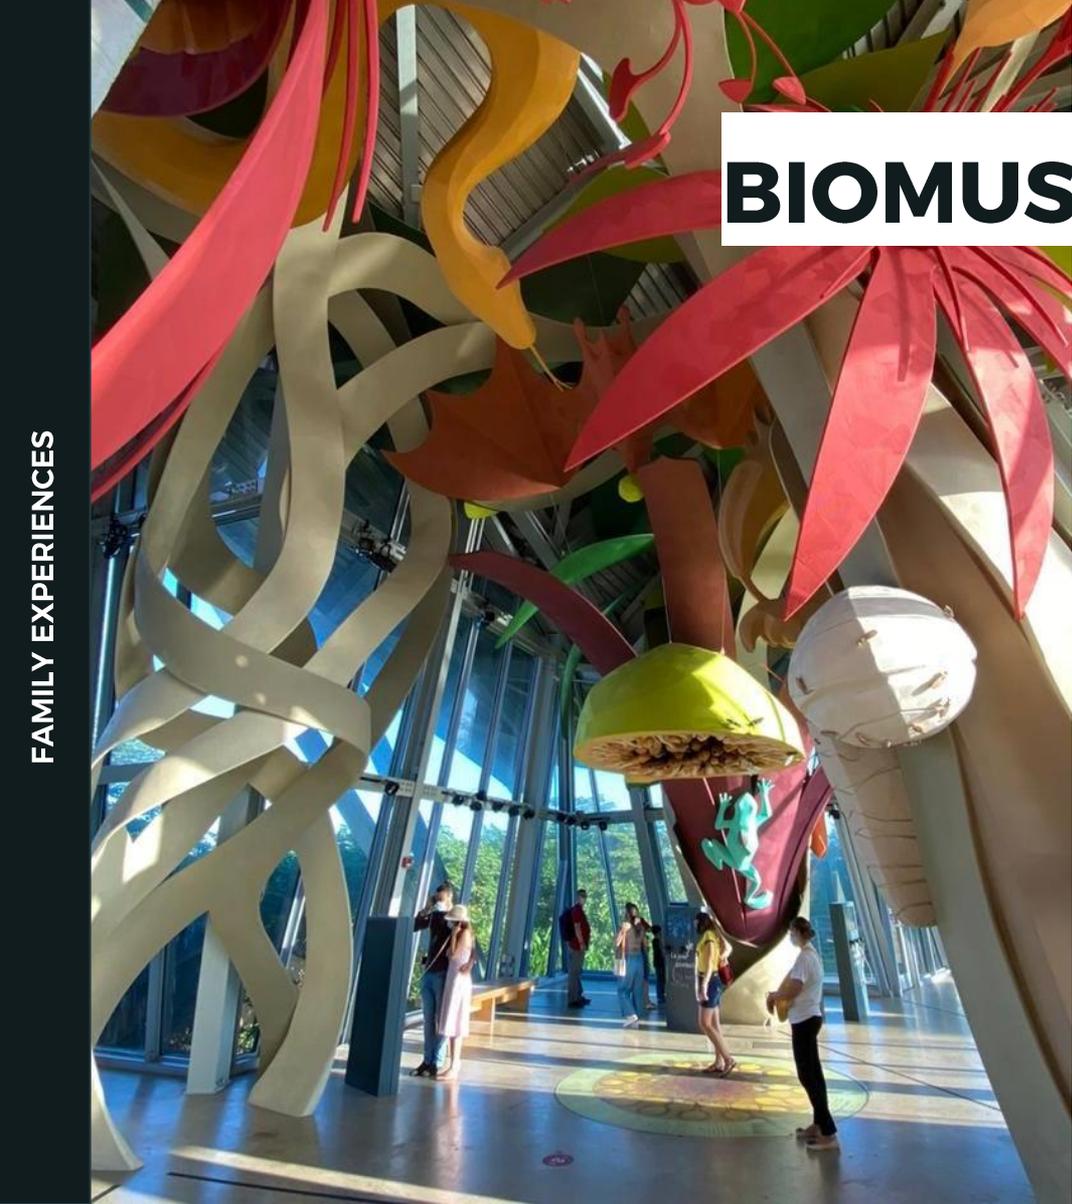

After a one-hour scenic drive from Panama City to Colon Province, you'll visit the Agua Clara Locks on the Atlantic side, where the fascinating engineering marvel of the Panama Canal unfolds. The canal's observation center offers breathtaking panoramic views of the canal expansion, including the three-chambered Agua Clara Locks. You can observe the spectacle from covered decks, with glimpses of Lago Gatún and the original Gatún Lock. Next, explore Fort San Lorenzo, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, situated at the mouth of the Río Chagres. The well-preserved fort, with its moat, cannons, and vaulted chambers, transports you back in time, offering imposing views of the river and bay. Discover the unique blend of Spanish and British influences, evident in the construction and history of this remarkable site. Your guide will arrange a deluxe picnic lunch, ensuring a memorable dining experience within the historic walls of San Lorenzo Fort.

Included: Transfer from your hotel, bilingual tour guide, entrance fee, refreshments, water, and picnic lunch.

Duration: Full-day tour

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes, sunscreen, and hat.

BIOMUSEO GUIDED TOUR

Research Panama's impressive history and biodiversity at Biomuseo. Nestled along the scenic Amador Causeway, this architecturally striking museum, designed by renowned architect Frank Gehry, beckons you to embark on an immersive journey through the isthmus's rich natural history. Discover the interconnected web of life that bridges North and South America, unravel the geological forces that shaped the region, and witness the extraordinary flora and fauna that call Panama home. With engaging exhibits, interactive displays, and a captivating narrative, Biomuseo promises an enlightening and enjoyable experience for visitors of all ages, offering a deeper understanding of the fascinating ecosystems that make Panama a biodiversity hotspot.

Explore the geological wonders that shaped our world and delve into the transformative impact the isthmus had on oceans, currents, climate, and continents three million years ago. This captivating narrative unfolds within the walls of the Biomuseo, a creation by the renowned architect Frank Gehry, marking his sole work in Latin America and the tropics. Gehry's design skillfully narrates the story of how the Panama isthmus emerged from the sea, connecting two continents, dividing a vast ocean, and permanently altering the planet's biodiversity. Spanning 4,000 square meters, the Biomuseo houses eight permanent exhibition galleries meticulously crafted by Bruce Mau Design. The permanent exhibition seamlessly blends art and science, guiding visitors through a marvelous journey of discovery. Situated on the Amador Causeway, the Biomuseo also provides panoramic views of the modern city skyline, the historic district, Ancon Hill, and the Bridge of the Americas.

Included: Transfer from your hotel, bilingual tour guide, and entrance fee.

Duration: Half-day tour

What to Bring: Comfortable shoes, sunscreen, and a hat.

ZIP LINE IN THE NATURE

Glide through the treetops of centuries-old forests, high above the rivers and pristine waterfalls that make up the incredible collection of natural landscapes that border La Amistad National Park and the famous Barú volcano.

ZIP LINE IN THE NATURE

Glide through the treetops of century-old forests, high above the pristine rivers and waterfalls that make up the incredible collection of natural landscapes bordering the National Park La Amistad and the famous Baru volcano. The zipline has a length of 2 miles (3 km.) and it is divided into 12 cables and 14 platforms built in the middle of the cloud forest. Who would have thought that a technology utilized hundreds of years ago by our indigenous people and later perfected by botanists and naturalists to observe and study the behaviors of wild creatures in their natural habitat, would be transformed into one of the most revered extreme sports? A harness, an ultra-resistant steel cable and gravity are the only elements necessary to suspend and propel the fearless rider in this incredible adrenaline rush.

Included: Transportation, naturalist bilingual guide, entrance fee, and safety equipment.

Duration: 4 hours

What To Bring: Sneakers or hiking boots, long pants, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, camera.

COFFEE TOUR

Learn the entire bean to cup process and you will never look at your morning cup the same way.

The country produces traditional shade-grown-coffee varieties .

COFFEE TOUR

Did you know that Panama produces some of the most flavorful coffee in the world? A relatively new player on the gourmet coffee market, the country produces traditional shade-grown coffee varieties that are generally considered to be more complex and distinctive than those produced by its more famous neighbor, Costa Rica. Most coffee plantations in Panama are concentrated around Boquete because of the high altitude required for prime coffee growing, and because of the region's fertile volcanic soil. On this tour, you will learn about the cultivation and process of the coffee bean and you will never look at your morning cup of joy the same once you have taken a coffee tour.

Included: Transportation from the hotel, English speaking driver/guide, and entrance fees.

What to bring: Comfortable shoes and clothes, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, camera, water.

Duration: 4 hours

HACIENDA MAMECILLO CULINARY EXPERIENCE

Many curiosities await you. Do you know what leaf will change any acid into a sweet? Visit a collection of crops, pick a recipe, and harvest your own food to be prepared for you.

Experience a wide explanation of coffee plantations and have a great tasting afterward.

HACIENDA MAMECILLO CULINARY EXPERIENCE

The Chamorro-Carlsson family opens the gates of their hacienda to attend exclusively to you and make you feel like their guests.

Upon arrival at the farm there will have a welcome and a tour around the greenhouse, and trout pond, then start dinner. It will include live cooking as part of the Experience of the farm-to-table Dinner, including fresh fruits and veggies from the farm season, organic salads, and meat from the farm – pork, and chicken.

After enjoying the Dinner, we will pass to the coffee process. After this, we will be ready to roast coffee in our own roasting machine and taste the coffee, of course!! We will also show how to use the coffee skin to make and try an amazing infusion.

Included: Transportation from the hotel, 6-course tasting menu and drinks.

What to bring: Comfortable shoes and clothes, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, camera, water.

Duration: 2 hours

SURF LESSONS

With a certified instructor, you'll learn or improve your surfing skills. A bit of theory and a lot of practice, then enjoy the waves to the full!

Included: Transportation, English-speaking guide and equipment.

Duration: 3 hours

What to Bring: Comfortable clothes, bathing suit, towel, insect repellent, sunscreen, sunglasses, and hat.

STARFISH BEACH, BOCA DEL DRAGO AND BIRD ISLAND

A short boat ride to Bird Island to observe a wide variety of marine life and birds that migrate to the region each year. The mainland coast and the mountain regions of Panama serve as an exquisite background for photo opportunities. You will then venture to Boca del Drago for swimming, snorkeling and lunch at the beach. Enjoy the white sand beach and culture that this location has to offer. The full afternoon will be spent at Starfish Beach and a chance to see starfish in the sea. You will go to a beautiful area called the Playa Estrella "pool" for swimming, snorkeling and nature watching.

STARFISH BEACH, BOCA DEL DRAGO AND BIRD ISLAND

Included: English-speaking captain, equipment & entrance fees

Duration: 7 hours

What to Bring: Comfortable clothes and shoes, bathing suit, towel, hat, sunscreen, sunglasses, camera, and water.

